

Chatterbox Learning 2010 Workshop Offerings

Birth through Three Years

- When will my child start talking?: Speech and language norms and tips for parents
- Language scripts: How to build speech and language skills in everyday activities
- How to talk so your child will talk back: Strategies for using repetition and scaffolding to enhance early speech and language
- Communication breakdown: How to deal with the frustrations that accompany early speech and language development
- Baby sign to support emerging speech and language
- Feel the rhythm: How music and multilingualism grow your baby's brain

Three through Five Years

- Is my child on track?: Speech and language norms and strategies for parents
- Is my child ready for school? : Language and learning norms and strategies for parents related to pre-school/ kindergarten readiness
- Phonemic Awareness: How to help your child get ready to read
- Listening and reading comprehension: Strategies for young readers and their parents
- Multilingualism: How early exposure to multiple languages helps grow your child's brain

Five Years plus

- Taking the struggle out of learning to read
- Multilingualism: How exposure to multiple languages expands your child's learning
- Homework time: Learning games that take the "work" out of homework

For more detailed information about workshop offerings and how to schedule, email Shannon Salverda at shannon@chatterboxlearning.com or call 724-6655.